OUR SERVICES

Permanent staffing solutions

Nelson Ocean UK Limited is a bespoke permanent recruiting business that does dependent searches. We have a candidate database, a digital presence that is consultative, and a competitive edge over corporate operations. In the talent recruiting market, our clients are obtaining a competitive advantage.

We take pleasure in the talent we provide for permanent healthcare staffing opportunities at Nelson Ocean UK Limited. Our skilled recruitment staff is knowledgeable about each of our main capabilities. This makes discussing your personal and corporate “whys” easy and allows the dialogue to flow.

Our business ties are viewed as partnerships, which means that we consider your requirements to be our own. Our partners are spread across the country, from metropolitan areas to rural areas.

We do not have a magic drawer where your ideal employee will magically appear, but we do have an amazing team of specialised recruiters and researchers who will make it seem that way.

Temporary staffing solutions

Before providing any services, we will meet with customers, listen, and fully grasp their demands. We do not have a habit of promising something we are unable to achieve in order to acquire a company; we believe in establishing an open and transparent relationship with customers from the beginning, which has proven quite successful for both us and our clients. Because of our candour, our clients have faith in us when we say we will deliver.

If you are searching for an agency that will take the bother, time, and money out of sourcing temporary personnel, then Nelson Ocean UK Limited is the appropriate agency for you. When you partner with us, we will work relentlessly to meet your demands in a way that allows you to concentrate on your primary business rather than spending hours on the phone trying to find people.
